

Stage 6

Easton Grey to Foxley

From the listed Tudor period bridge at Easton Grey, this stage follows the valley, crosses the river and the Roman 'Fosse Way', and then crosses fields to end at the C12th church in Foxley. At the Fosse Way the trail passes the site of the Roman settlement known as 'Whitewalls' which gives the trail its name.

